KI Student Gi – $40.00 – 8 ounce 100% cotton. Whole sizes only, 0000 – 8.

Traditional Gi - Options and Pricing

A sharp looking gi is highly recommended for tournament use, and many students prefer the heavier cotton for regular training as well. We have several options available, descriptions and prices are below. Traditional cut means the jacket comes to about mid-thigh, and the arms/legs tend to be shorter. All options are 100% cotton.

ASE Busho: Traditional cut, 12 ounce. Recommended for junior students.

Tokaido: Traditional cut, in 12 or 14 ounce weights. Available in Traditional Cotton or Brushed Cotton, which is softer and more supple. Available through special order only. Please contact us for more information and current pricing.

Shureido: Made in Okinawa, from a special Japanese material that does not come with an ounce designation. Traditional jacket length. Sleeves/legs are somewhat shorter on the Tournament cut, but may still need to be hemmed. Available through special order only. Please contact us for more information and current pricing.
